Three Friendly Tips for Enjoying the Festival

- 1 Please don't view the mikoshi (portable shrines) from second-floor windows, as it's considered disrespectful to look down on the enshrined deities from above.
- 2 For their safety, please keep a firm hold of your children's hands while the mikoshi is being carried.
- 3 We invite you to enjoy the festival atmosphere, but kindly refrain from touching the mikoshi or hikiyama (festival floats) without permission, as they are sacred and carefully preserved.
